- Up to 12 January 1951, the 6th Supply Depot near Nemsova (P 49/T 59), referred to as J.S.6, and the 12th Supply Depot near Skala (P 49/T 58), referred to as J.S.12, were subordinate to Headquarters Utvar No 7704 in Nemsova, whose superior headquarters was the 4th Military District in Bratislava (P 49/T 99). Lieutenant Colonel Karl Barton was the commanding officer and Captain Josef Breznansky the deputy commander of the headquarters in Nemsova. Captain Johann Hancovsky was chief of the 12th Supply Depot. One labor company was assigned to each depot. The labor company assigned to the 6th Supply Depot consisted of 10 officers, 18 NCOs, and 112 EM, while the one assigned to the 12th Supply Depot consisted of 5 officers, 13 NCOs, and 112 EM. Each company was equipped with nine light machine guns and submachine guns for the entire personnel.
- The 6th Supply Depot near Nemsova was an ordnance depot, located about 1 km north of the town, northeast of a railroad junction. The depot consisted of nine single-story brick storehouses with basements, one three-story barracks building, two officers' billets, and a guardhouse. It was enclosed by an iron fence 3 meters high, along the top of which was barbed wire. Railroad tracks were located between the storehouses. Light and heavy infantry weapons, which were shipped by rail, were stored in the storehouses. Units stationed in Trencin (P 49/T 58), Zilina (Q 50/O 92), Zlatovce (P 49/T 58), and Topolcany (P 49/T 64) were supplied from the depot. *
- The 12th Supply Depot near Skala was an ammunition depot, built into a rocky hill south of the town. At the entrance to the depot was an iron gate, which was guarded by a detail of one NCO and 11 EM at all times. Heavy artillery ammunition and aircraft bombs, which came in by truck, were stored in the depot. No information on the quantities of the ammunition stored was available. **

25X1A * Comment. in September 1948 that the 7th Supply Depot, in which ration supplies and articles of clothing were stored, was located near Nemsova.

** Comment. This installation was reported to be an ammunition depot as early as late 1947.
